

EARLY GROWTH FINANCIAL SERVICES NAMES GADIEL MORANTES PRESIDENT

S.F. (Dec. 14, 2017) - Early Growth Financial Services (EGFS) has promoted Gadiel Morantes to the role of President. Formerly Chief Revenue Officer, Morantes will continue to lead all business development efforts across all markets serviced by EGFS.

A Bay Area native, Morantes has spent the last three years helping to expand the EGFS footprint to the five largest startup markets in the United States. Morantes has nearly two decades of business development, operations and marketing experience, including work with entrepreneurs and startup founders.

"Gadiel is an anchor of our organization. He has a complete, 100% strategic understanding of the marketplace which few people in our eco-system possess," said David Ehrenberg, Founder and CEO of Early Growth Financial Services. "As we prepare for our next phase of growth, Gadiel's leadership, vision and patience will help guide us to success."

Previously, Morantes had served as Vice President of Venture Banking at Square 1 Bank, providing banking solutions in the startup ecosystem. He has also had business development roles at Moss Adams LLP (formerly Mohler, Nixon, & Williams) and Bowne.

"I am honored and excited to step into the role of President at EGFS," said Morantes. "This is a great opportunity for me to continue pursuing my passion of advising founders and entrepreneurs, while helping their businesses grow and succeed. I also look forward to advancing the firm's growth by working with early-stage companies in need of our services."
